

The Time Traveler's Map

Designing Your 5-Year Financial Future

Imagine Your Future Self at 16

Imagine you are 16 years old, in Grade 11. What do you need?

- A laptop for studies?
- Professional coaching for sports or music?
- Your own bicycle?

What Are Goals? Short, Medium, Long Term

1

Short-Term Goal
(1 Year)
New School Bag

2

Medium-Term Goal
(3 Years)
Tablet for Studies

3

Long-Term Goal
(5 Years)
Robotics or Tennis Camp

The Life Map Journey

Planning your money is like planning a long family trip – you need to know your stops and fuel for each leg. Just like a journey from Kanyakumari to Kashmir needs planning, your financial goals need a roadmap too!

Meet the Inflation Monster: The Samosa Test

5 years ago, a samosa cost ₹10. Today, it costs ₹15! That's the Inflation Monster at work. Money buys less over time. That's why we must save more for our future goals.

Saving vs. Investing: Mango Sapling Story

Saving is like keeping money in a piggy bank – it stays safe but doesn't grow. Investing is like planting a mango sapling – with time and care, it grows into a tree that gives you fruits (more money) year after year!

Setting SMART Goals

SMART goals help you plan better! Make your goals Specific, Measurable, Achievable, and Time-bound to turn dreams into reality.

The SMART Way:

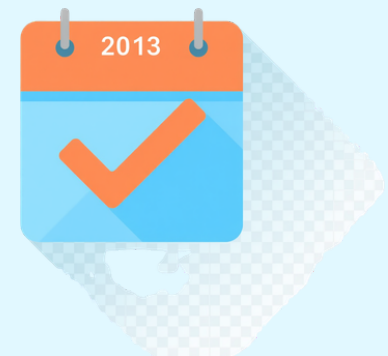

Specific

Measurable

Achievable

Time-bound

Your 5-Year Treasure Map Activity

Time to create your own financial journey!

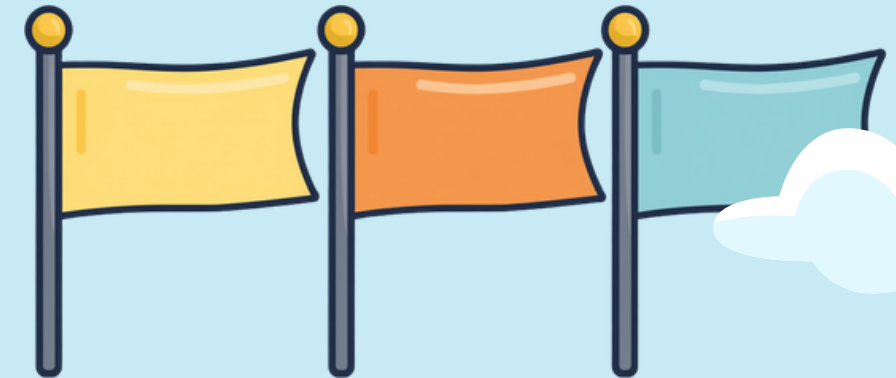

Draw a winding path with 3 milestone flags: short, medium & long-term goals

At each flag, write: What is your goal? How much will it cost?

Plan how to save: pocket money, birthday gifts, or family help!

Example Treasure Map

- 1 New school bag ₹1,000 - save pocket money
- 2 Tablet ₹15,000 - save birthday gifts + family plan
- 3 Robotics camp ₹50,000 - save gifts + family help
